I agree to Ariez informing me on activities and products of the BJH.

The Belgian Journal of Hematology is published eight times a year and distributed free of charge to all clinicians (medical specialists or those in training for specialist) who are active in the field of haematology (dedicated to benign or malignant haematological diseases) or active in haematological genetics, transfusion/hematologic laboratories, transplantation, thrombosis and haemostasis in Belgium.

Marketers of pharmaceutical companies can also apply for a (free) subscription to this journal. In view of the GDPR regulations we ask you to please fill out this form. We inform you on our subscription policy below:

- Free subscriptions are intended for marketers who advertise.
- All marketers who advertise receive one free subscription.
- Medicals, drug safety officers, sales and field employees can only apply for a paid subscription.
- Every marketer who advertises can apply for three free subscriptions at most. These free subscriptions are intended for other marketers who do not advertise and/or administrators.
- Companies that do not advertise receive one free subscription for one year at most.
- You can apply for as many paid subscriptions as you wish.
- All persons/companies not belonging to the target audience as mentioned above, can apply for a subscription at a rate of € 135,- per year excluding VAT and postal costs. Separate issues are available for € 19,50 per issue excluding VAT and postal costs. When you have a valid VAT number, VAT is exempted.
